“CEDRS is the Place Where Mediation Transcends and Disputes End”

Sean E. Judge, Esq.

Sean E. Judge provides creative and skilled mediation and arbitration services to help individuals and businesses resolve difficult legal disputes. Sean has practiced as a litigator since 1989. He has a sound grasp of civil law, and the ability to identify the strengths and weaknesses of each side's positions. His substantial experience of over 300 mediations and training in alternative dispute resolution allow him to propose insightful solutions to keep disputes moving toward resolution. He has served as an arbitrator since 1994, as a Judge Pro Tem since 1997, and a mediator since 2002, when he completed mediator training at the Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution at Pepperdine School of Law.

From 1989 through 2000, Sean practiced law with large, Los-Angeles based law firms and was a member of ASCDC. From 2000-2010, he represented individuals and small businesses and was a member of CAALA. Sean has served as a mediator or arbitrator in civil cases involving personal injury, construction defect and contracts, business and commercial disputes, real estate, civil rights, employment and medical malpractice.
